

Odysseus and his men enter the Cyclops's cave to an unwelcoming greeting from the Cyclops himself.

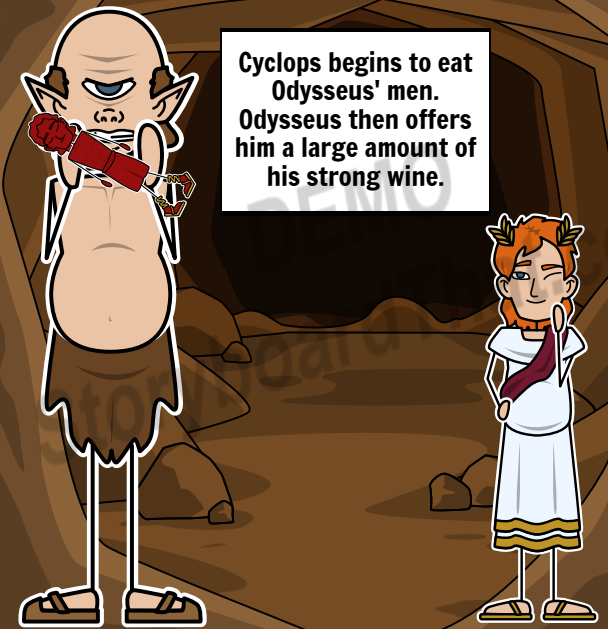

Do you have a ship?

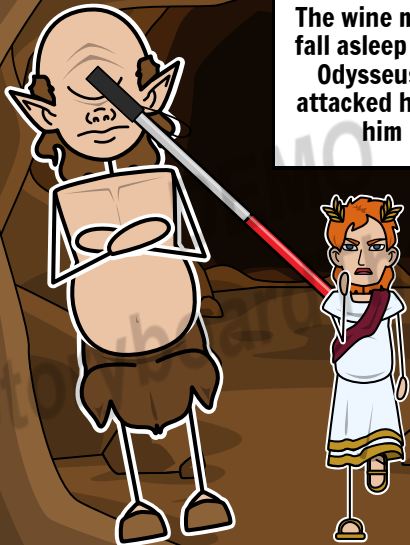

"My ship? Poseidon Lord... broke it up on the rocks... We are survivors, these good men and I"

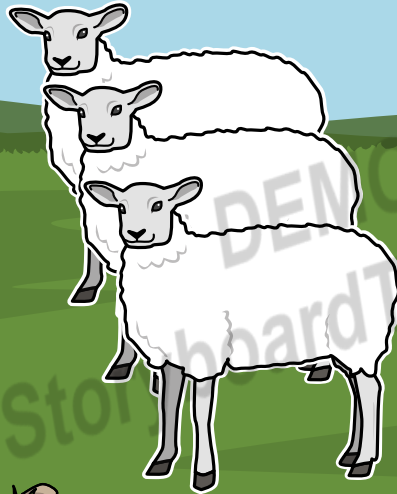

Cyclops begins to eat Odysseus' men. Odysseus then offers him a large amount of his strong wine.

The wine made the Cyclops fall asleep and in that time Odysseus and his men, attacked him, and stabbed him in the eye.

Odysseus and his men quickly came up with an excellent escape plan, including the Cyclops sheep.

"Cyclops if ever mortal man inquire how you were put to shame and blinded, tell them Odysseus... took your eye...!"
